

Exam Scope

Students should be able to:

- Analyze persuasive texts.
- Identify the tone of a persuasive text.
- Identify examples of pathos, ethos, and logos in a persuasive text.
- Write an introduction with a hook using persuasive techniques.
- Create a thesis statement by stating their opinion with reasons.
- Write a body paragraph with reasons and examples/evidence.
- Use relevant examples of ethos, pathos, and logos to support their opinion.
- Write a conclusion paragraph to restate opinions.
- Use sentence starters and transition words to add flow to their writing.